

Sinclair is abusing the public airways and violating the public trust that this use allows. The FCC must not relinquish its public responsibility and guarantee equal time for political ads.